About the University

Punjabi University, Patiala was established under the Punjab Act No. 35 of 1961. Dr. S. Radhakrishnan laid the foundation of the University on 24th June, 1962. Over the time since its inception, the university has evolved into a multi-faceted and multi-faculty educational institution for the promotion of higher education and research in Humanities, Arts, Sciences, Engineering, Languages, Technology and many more. Spread over 600 acres of land, its 1500+ teachers are imparting instruction and guidance to nearly 14000+ students in a multi-faceted, multi-pronged and multi-faculty environment comprising 70+ Teaching and Research Departments/ Chairs on its Campus, 27 Regional Centre/ Neighbourhood Campuses and 274 colleges affiliated to it.

About the Mission

Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching (PMMMNMTT) focuses in a holistic manner dealing with the whole sector of education, without fragmenting the programmes based on levels and sectors as school, higher, technical etc. It is considered that programmes dealing with teachers in all sectors and levels of education should grow and function in a mutually supportive manner. It tries to bridge the gap between teachers and teacher educators and provide opportunities for teachers to become teacher educators. It tries to empower teachers and faculty through training, induction programmes and workshops in generic skills, pedagogic skills, ICT and technology enabled training.
